

The presentation of

THE NINTH ANNUAL

ALLAN BORDER MEDAL

THE EVENT

Televised nationally by the Nine Network, this exclusive presentation will be celebrated with a black-tie function in Palladium at Crown in Melbourne.

This is Australian cricket's 'night of nights' and will feature all current players, former Test captains, cricketing legends plus special guest appearances and performances.

Entertainment in previous years has included live performances from Stevie Nicks, Harry Connick Jnr, Brian Ferry, Delta Goodrem, Russell Crowe, Jimmy Barnes and Human Nature.

Now in its ninth year, the Allan Border Medal is considered the highest individual honour in Australian cricket and is a permanent and distinguished fixture in the Australian sporting landscape.

The night features the induction of a cricket legend or legends into the Hall of Fame, plus the six annual awards:

- Allan Border Medal
- Test Player of the Year
- One-Day Player of the Year
- State Player of the Year
- Bradman Young Cricketer of the Year
- International Women's Cricketer of the Year

The telecast is also followed by the official and exclusive after party.

ALLAN BORDER MEDAL

The Medal bears the name of Allan Border, one of Australia's greatest cricketing icons. It recognises the most outstanding Australian cricketer of the past season as voted by his peers, the media and umpires. Votes are cast after each game on a 3-2-1 basis. A weighting is also applied to give both One-Day and Test players an equal chance of winning the award. Votes are kept strictly confidential and are counted and audited by Pricewaterhouse Coopers.
